SUBJECT: AFGHAN SUPPORT ON U.S. UNGA PRIORITIES

REF: STATE 130775

11. (1. (U) Per Reftel, on September 20, Post delivered the U.S. priorities for the 62nd UN General Assembly debate to the Afghan Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

12. (U) Deputy Director of the UN and International Conferences department G. Seddiq Rasuli told Poloff that he understood how important the U.S. priorities were in UNGA and that we could assume that Afghanistan would "generally" support U.S. goals at UNGA and in the UN committees. Rasuli said he would forward the non-paper containing the U.S. priorities to the Director of United Nations Affairs, Ayoub Erfani, who was in New York accompanying the delegation from Afghanistan to UNGA. We will follow up with the MFA and forward responses we receive to the specific items.
